

The Resurrection

The next morning, the women who mourned Jesus, took sweet smelling spices to the tomb.

Jesus' body was laid inside a tomb. A heavy stone was pushed across the entrance.

The women peered into the tomb. There were only strips of linen where the body had been.

Jesus was taken up to Heaven. The disciples were filled with the Holy Spirit. They knew Jesus would be with them all the time.

During the 40 days after Jesus had risen from the dead, he appeared to the disciples many times. He spoke to them about the Kingdom of God and asked them to preach forgiveness to the world.

As the women got near, they saw that the stone had been rolled away and the soldiers had gone.

The Pharisees and priests were fearful. They sent soldiers to guard the tomb.

Suddenly an Angel appeared and said "Jesus has risen from the dead as he said he would. Go and tell the disciples."
